Palmas Farmers Market is seeking locally produced agriculture and food related products, locally prepared food, and local artists and community groups.

Each product and vendor will be reviewed based on several criteria, including point of origin (where was the produce grown, where is the product from), hand-crafted original design, and added value.

Vendors are Responsible for:

- Bringing their own tent, tables, display, chair (optional), and signs to display name and prices.
- Vendor must arrive and have booth set-up complete at 9 am, when the market opens.
- Business license and permits, including payment for all taxes (as applicable).
- Prepared food vendors must have a current Food Handling Certificate.
- Sellers of alcoholic beverages must have their Internal Revenue License for the sale of alcohol.
- Collecting payment from customers for any and all sales before, during, or after the market.
- Keep a clean and tidy space around vendor area, including trash collection as applicable. Example, if vendor provides wrappers or plates for samples or purchased food, then they must also have a trash can nearby to collect the trash.

Is there access to electricity at the Market?

Electricity is available at the PFM for limited vendors at no additional cost and must be reserved ahead of the event. Generators may be approved under certain circumstances. Vendors should request electric access at least 2 weeks prior to the event. PFM will make every effort to provide electric access, if available.

All generators must be approved by PFM organizers in advance. If approved, vendor provides generator, extension cord and ensure the cord is not a tripping hazard to guests or other vendors. Generators must be quiet to respect PFM vendors, customers, and residents. Generators causing disruption or complaints will not be permitted.

What kind of licenses/permits do I need?

Sales Tax: Vendors are required to comply with Puerto Rico Sales Tax law. It is the responsibility of every vendor to know if they are required to collect and remit Sales Tax based on the product they sell.

Food Safety: Vendors are required to comply with Public Health regulations governing the preparation, handling, and presentation of food. It is the responsibility of every food handling vendor to know if they are required to obtain specific food handling licensing.

Are non-profits able to participate?

Applicants must be a local non-profit 501(C)(6), charitable 501(c)(3) or 1101.01a Puerto Rico non-profit with the purpose of showcasing and promoting their specific organization. Space is limited and participants are accepted on a first-apply-first-scheduled basis.
