Vendor Events Fees

Vendor participation fees are $50 per event.

Fees may be paid via ATH Móvil to pATH/GrowingPuertoRico or PayPal to Jennifer.Morrow@GrowingPR.com. Credits will only be issued if vendor notified PFM 48 hours or more prior to the event. No-show or cancelations less than 48 hours before the event will not be credited or waived.

Each product and vendor is reviewed based on several criteria, including point of origin (where was the produce grown, where is the product from), hand-crafted original design, and added value.

Vendors are Responsible for:

- Bringing their own tent, tables, display, chair (optional), and signs to display name and prices.
- Vendor must arrive and have booth set-up complete at 9 am, when the market opens.
- Business license and permits, including payment for all taxes (as applicable).
- Prepared food vendors must have a current Food Handling Certificate.
- Sellers of alcoholic beverages must have their Internal Revenue License for the sale of alcohol.
- Collecting payment from customers for any and all sales before, during, or after the market.
- Keep a clean and tidy space around vendor area, including trash collection as applicable. Example, if vendor provides wrappers or plates for samples or purchased food, then they must also have a trash can nearby to collect the trash.

Vendor Code of Conduct

1. Palmas Farmers Market benefits from a strong community of vendors. Vendors should elevate each other and never denigrate each other to customers or other vendors. Collaboration among vendors on products and promotions is strongly encouraged. Lend a hand to fellow vendors as needed.
2. Appropriate signs, product labels, and prices must be posted at each vendor booth.
3. Vendors must accurately and truthfully describe and represent their products to customers and other vendors, especially with respect to ingredients, dietary restrictions, cultivation and husbandry practices, sourcing, and age.
4. For the rare situation when you will be arriving later than 8:45am, notify us using WhatsApp / SMS with your estimated arrival time.
5. We take guest complaints very seriously and will notify any vendor if there is a guest complaint. An appropriate resolution and preventative action plan must be provided by the vendor to PFM Organizers prior to participation in future events.
6. No smoking at your booth, near guests, or in the farmers market area.

Feedback

Palmas Farmers Market values feedback from both vendors and customers to continually improve the market experience.

Vendors are encouraged to provide feedback on their experience at the market, including suggestions for improvement.

Customers are invited to share their feedback on the quality of products, customer service, and overall experience at the market.

Feedback can be submitted through direct text message or via email to the market organizers at Events@PalmasFarmersMarket.com

All feedback will be reviewed and considered by market organizers to inform future decision-making and enhancements to the market.

Vendor Frequently Asked Questions

Will the Market be canceled if it is raining?

PFM is a rain or shine event and we operate in regular, seasonal rain. In the event of Hurricanes and extreme weather, PFM may be canceled and notice will be provided to all vendors and guests.

Is there access to electricity at the Market?

There is no electricity access at the PFM. All generators must be approved by PFM organizers in advance and will be assigned to a specific location. If approved, vendor provides generator, extension cord and ensure the cord is not a tripping hazard to guests or other vendors.

What kind of licenses/permits do I need?

Sales Tax: Vendors are required to comply with Puerto Rico Sales Tax law. It is the responsibility of every vendor to know if they are required to collect and remit Sales Tax based on the product they sell.

Food Safety: Vendors are required to comply with Public Health regulations governing the preparation, handling, and presentation of food. It is the responsibility of every food handling vendor to know if they are required to obtain specific food handling licensing.

Are non-profits able to participate?

Applicants must be a local charitable 501(c)(3) or 1101.01a Puerto Rico non-profit with the purpose of showcasing and promoting their specific organization. Space is limited and participants are accepted on a first-apply-first-scheduled basis.
